AUDIENCE OF COUNCIL

Councilwoman Combs stated her thoughts and prayers are with the Deaton family and friends. Councilman Perry stated his thoughts are with the Deaton family. He then thanked everyone involved in the Easter egg hunt at the Community Park.

Councilman Agee echoed the thoughts and prayers for the Deaton family and the families that were involved. He then went onto to say that the Easter egg hunt was wonderful. He finished by asking who is paying for the re-paving of Kennel road? City Manager Marcos Nichols stated that we would be covering a portion, as well as some state funds, and Carvana will cover the remaining.

Councilwoman Montgomery also echoed all of the thoughts and prayers for the Deaton family, as well as all that were involved. She then reported that she was thankful for the opportunity to be part of the Sunrise Service put on by the EMA. It was absolutely beautiful, cold, but beautiful.

Vice Mayor Perry gave his condolences to the Deaton family, as well as everyone involved including the first responders. He then gave condolences to the Clinger family, she had been a long time resident, she will be missed. Finally he stated how nice it was that the weather cooperated for the Egg hunt, he stated it went really well, he thanked everyone involved. Mayor Woodrey gave his condolences to the Deaton family, stating it is terrible when a young life is lost. HE too then gave his condolences to the Clinger family as well. The losses are devastating to say the least. He stated there are many things going on around the City to benefit the Deaton family, his hats off to a job well done by the community for those in need. He stated that many of the benefits are accepting donations. He finished by stating that the Easter egg hunt went great, he heard that 10,650 eggs were hidden. He then thanked Vice Mayor Perry and Councilwoman Montgomery for participating in the Sunrise Service in his absence.
