AUDIENCE OF COUNCIL

Councilwoman Harris thanked Public works for everything they did for the spring festival.

Thanks to P.D. for hosting franks for the fuzz and the fire dept. for interacting with the kids and turning the fire hoses on them! Thanks to Councilman Perry for the proclamation for the Keith family. She finished by stating she would love to see the flag pole at the park moved to amore central location or by the amphitheater as the boy scouts did the flag raising for the festival but she was not sure many people caught it due to where the flag pole is located.

Councilwoman Combs stated that it was a great event. Kids had a great time, the park equipment looked great, thanks to everyone involved.

Councilman Perry Thanks so much to Public works, the police dept. and to Sharon. Also thanks to the Keith family!

Councilman Agee stated this month is Mental Health month, and to try to get rid of the stigma that comes with this diagnosis. Congratulations to all of the graduates. He then reminded everyone to be safe this weekend for garage sales, the City will be crowded, please use extreme caution. Finally Happy Memorial Day, he asked that we take the time to memorialize our veterans that gave their lives for us.

Councilwoman Montgomery thanked Matthew, and agreed with Councilman Agee, please use caution this weekend. She went on to say that this week she had the honor of being bedside of a 99 year old WWII veteran whom flown a B-52 for us to give us our freedom. Thank you to all vets.

Vice Mayor Perry started off by thanking everyone that was involved in the festival and getting the playground ready on time. He thanked Amberly Osuna for volunteering for the Dunk booth, she spent the longest time in the booth and the water was freezing. He then thanked Matt Hill for his speech. Secondly he warned everyone to be patient and cautious.

Mayor Woodrey thanked everyone that was involved with our first annual Springfest. HE stated he was told the playground needed a couple repairs to the pour in place but will only be closed for a couple days when the weather permits. He then also stated for everyone to be cautious if driving this weekend, people will stop unexpected, be traveling and checking out sales instead of paying attention to the road, just be careful out there. Circling back he stated he had the honor of swearing in Matthew Mesisklis on Monday morning as well as a new public works employee. Finally he wished everyone a Happy Memorial day, and to be safe if anyone is traveling over the Holidays.
